

Read the following text:

I Love Football

My name is Dana and I play football. I have a new ball. It is black and white. It is a special ball for football.

I usually play football after school. I play in the afternoon. I don't play at home. I play in the garden. I don't play alone. I play with my friends. They like to play football too.

I like to win in football. I want to be the best player. Do you play football too? Are you a good player? If you are a good player, come and play with me and with my friends.
